ALL MUST FIGHT OR DIE IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE PORT ARTHUR

Russian General Says He Will Never Surrender The Port.

Position of the Two Armies Now Definitely Known--- Clash Expected Daily.

JAPS ANXIOUS FOR FRAY---NO BATTLE REPORTED

London, Feb. 29.—Russia's Telegram company has received a dispatch from St. Petersburg stating that a telegram has been received there from Port Arthur, reporting that the Russian general commanding, has issued an order deciding to call the attention of troops and inhabitants to the fact that the Japanese intend to land at Port Arthur and seize the fortress. The general declares he will never give the order to surrender and calls on everybody to fight to the death, as no one can save himself without fighting.

SAYS CHINA IS AGAINST RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 29.—The news paper Aviet, in a leading article today, expresses the belief China is secretly ally of Japan. It says that like England and America, China will do everything possible to injure Russia.

READY FOR FRAY.

Indianapolis, Feb. 29.—Miners and operators are both ready for the final struggle over the wage question. They met this morning. Vice President Lewis said that every effort would be made by the miners to avoid a strike. The operators are firm for a reduction.

POSITION OF ARMIES.

Chengau, Feb. 29.—Definite news regarding the military operations of Russia and Japan are now coming in and for the first time since the war began it is now possible to get a good line on the positions of the opposing armies. The primary Russian base for invasion in Korea is at Liao Yang, China, on the Manchurian road, which is connected by the only good road in the country, with Kailien Cheng, where a secondary base is fixed. The Japanese are advancing toward the North along the Hai Jih Yang in road from Seoul, and toward Ping Yang, which is at present occupied by outposts only.

JAPS ARE READY.

Paris, Feb. 29.—A message from St. Petersburg reports that the Japanese squadron, ready for a final assault on Vladivostok. The same dispatch says the Japanese have landed not more than seventy thousand men, and are held fifty miles south of Ping Yang owing to the difficulty of communications.

TURKEY AND HUNGARIA.

London, Feb. 29.—Turkey and Bulgaria are rapidly getting their affairs in a condition for war. That a clash will come in early spring is accepted in many quarters as a foregone conclusion.

JAP SHIPS DAMAGED.

Chengau, Feb. 29.—It is reported here that two Japanese warships have been compelled to make Saibo for repairs.

THIRD WEEK OF THE WAR.

While Russia has been making preparations for the real and rapid war, she expects in the spring, when troops hastening across frozen Siberia on the railroad are to punish the enemy, Port Arthur has been attacked again by the Japanese. This time four stone laden steamers were sent into the harbor to be sunk, thus bottling up the Russian fleet. The Russian, disabled by the first battle fired upon Japan's vessels, and, with the assistance of other ships and the forts, sank them. At Tokio it is asserted that the object Togo sought has been obtained. At St. Petersburg this is denied. The coup was undertaken Wednesday morning. The next day another attack on Port Arthur was made by the Japanese under Admiral Togo. One vessel is reported lost on each side. The first dispatches on the attack were to the effect that four Japanese battleships and two cruisers had been destroyed, but this was disapproved.

The important army movements are the reported landings of a Japanese force south of Vladivostok, to march overland to Kailien, and the flight of Russians from Dalny.

Diplomatically, there has been the very important development that Japan has made a treaty with Korea guaranteeing the independence and integrity of that empire after the close of the war and assuming a protectorate over the country, in return for which the Korean will fight for Japan. Maritime Russia has addressed a protest to the nations, because Japan's fleet attacked the Varing and Korietz in a neutral port (Chumli), after it is said, having cut the wires and prevented news of the outbreak of hostilities from reaching the Russian commanders.

LATE WAR TELEGRAMS.

St. Petersburg.—Unconfirmed rumor current here that two Russian battleships and torpedo boats sunk at Port Arthur.

Tokio.—Reported Japanese seized Island Hai Yang Tao, one of Elliott Islands in Korea Bay about hundred miles northeast Port Arthur.

Louisville.—L. D. Hogg, C. T. Vaughan, seriously wounded last night while trying to capture Fred Caperton charged with burning city hall and prison Tuesday night. Caperton and two brothers finally captured one shot in arm.

Birmingham.—Jim Paris, colored, boarded Q. and O. train near Meridian this morning and killed Postal Clerk Stockton, wounded Postal Clerk Bass, secured a package of registered letters. Paris sprang from train and had one leg crushed off. He was located by bloodhounds and the letters recovered. Paris was taken to Meridian and crowd threatened to lynch him, and the governor ordered out troops. The railroad company thinks others were involved in the plot.

St. Petersburg.—A telegram from Liao Yang states foreigners living in Yin Kow assert that Japanese instructed to storm Port Arthur and capture it at any cost.

FATAL BLOWS

Al Wicks, Engineer at Palmer House, Died This Afternoon.

Struck in a Brawl at His Home Saturday, It Is Alleged By Robison Johnson.

JOHNSON IS UNDER ARRESTED

Al Wicks, for many years engineer at the Palmer house, and one of the best known men in the city, was assaulted at his home on North Fourth street between Madison and Harrison between 9 and 11 o'clock Saturday night. It is alleged by Robison Johnson, and died at 12.05 o'clock this afternoon from his injuries.

The assault is somewhat a mystery, and it was this morning believed that Wicks' injuries were not so bad as was first reported. He was conscious at intervals and seemed to blame himself more than anyone else.

Officers Cross and Johnson arrested Robison Johnson early this morning and took him to the city hall, but he was subsequently released, as there was no evidence against him.

Ed Love, alleged to have been present at the time, was summoned to appear before Police Judge D. L. Sanders this morning to answer questions, and in response to interrogations from Prosecuting Attorney Thomas Harrison, stated that he and Johnson took Wicks home Saturday night and when the house was reached and the three entered, he stepped into another room to inquire of Mrs. Wicks about the children, who are all of measles, and when he and Mrs. Wicks stepped into the room he had left Johnson and Wicks in a violent before, they found the latter lying on the floor unconscious and Johnson gone.

Mrs. Wicks was seen this morning by a Sun reporter and although she was greatly agitated and in a very nervous condition, stated that her husband said he was as much to blame as any one. She stated that the three came in drinking. She heard no noise and didn't know how the trouble came about, but from what she could learn that her husband got into the trouble by drawing a pistol.

"He stated that he was as much to blame as anyone," she explained. "He had been conscious part of the time since the assault and when rational told me that Love, Johnson and he were all drunk and that it was a matter of self-defense on both sides. I do not know what he was struck with or anything more than I have told you."

It is said that whoever struck the blow used a fence palling as he could have easily gotten it from the fence, which is in a dilapidated condition. Mrs. Wicks stated that she saw no palling and that if one was used it was not left in the house.

Mrs. Wicks said her husband admitted that Johnson acted in self-defense.

Wicks had both eyes knocked almost out, his nose broken and his skull fractured. It is not known how many blows were struck.

It is probable that Love was too drunk to know what really happened. It seems that after the fight in which Wicks was assaulted, Mrs. Wicks ran down town, and at the corner of Fourth and Broadway asked for protection.

Love came up with a palling in his hand and kept mumbling something about "Johnson done it," according to Mr. Harry Brazelton, who was standing there. Mr. Brazelton states that he sent Mrs. Wicks into the drug store, which was open, and took Love away. The latter seemed to be dazed.

Coroner Peal this afternoon stated that he would probably hold the inquest tomorrow at 9 a. m.

Johnson, the young man alleged to have assaulted Wicks, is a son of Mr. Charles Johnson, the well known river engineer, now on the Sprague. He

ANOTHER IN LIMBO

E. D. Thompson is Charged With Counterfeiting.

Arrested By Deputy Hubbard in the Blood River Section of Marshall.

WAS ARRESTED BEFORE.

Deputy United States Marshal Sydney Hubbard and a secret service man arrived last night from the Blood river section of Marshall county with E. D. Thompson, a farmer, charged with being implicated in the counterfeiting that has been so conspicuous of late in this section of the state.

Thompson lives in the Blood river section and was arrested here several weeks ago with the other farmers who were charged with being mixed up in the matter. There was not enough evidence to hold the man and he was released by Commissioner Armour Gardner.

The secret service man, of Louisville, who has been working on the case for many weeks, kept right on with his investigation and has now, he claims, secured evidence enough to hold the man over. Thompson was placed in jail here last night to wait the action of Commissioner Gardner tomorrow.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Sydney Hubbard and the secret service man rode many miles yesterday on horseback summoning witnesses and the former was worn out this morning. The detective went back to Marshall county this morning to continue his work and will remain in this section until every man responsible in any degree with counterfeiting is lodged behind the bars.

Drudgery

And Worry Sap Woman's Nervous Vitality.

There is nothing more nerve wrecking than household duties and the care of children. The drudgery, worry and anxiety of the day, and the broken rest at night soon exhausts her vitality and she becomes nervous, irritable and restless. If allowed to continue, it ends in Sick, Nervous Headaches, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, and those terrible Periodical Bearing-down pains, which come from nervous exhaustion.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a never-failing remedy for such cases. It builds up and soothes the nerves, and brings the sweet, restful sleep, so much needed.

No other medicine is so pleasant or so curative in every case of female weakness, nervousness or general worn-out condition.

Try it at our risk. Cost refunded if first bottle fails to benefit you.

"I had been sick several years with indigestion and nervous prostration, which kept me almost constantly under a physician's care, and while I had been treated by four doctors, I received only temporary relief. I was very weak and nervous, and unable to attend to my household duties. After reading about Dr. Miles' Nervine, I concluded to give it a trial. The first few doses brought restful sleep at night, and an appetite for food. Continuing the treatment, I rapidly improved, and now I am well and able to do all my work."

WANTED TO SEE THE BOYS.

Last fall, when Senator Hanna returned to Washington, he took a suite of apartments in the Arlington Hotel, equipped with private dining room and his own staff of cooks and waiters. He ate his breakfasts in his private dining room for a time but at length exclaimed to Mrs. Hanna: "Let's give up this dining room and go down into the public dining room for our breakfasts. I want to see some of the boys once in a while."

He loved his friends, and he stood by them. In his eyes they could do no wrong. Such mistakes as he made were usually through too ardent standing by friends who were unworthy of him. A story told of him recently is characteristic, and doubtless true. At a political meeting in Ohio some one charged that he had procured Federal appointments for fifteen members of the Ohio legislature who had voted for him for senator. "It's a lie," exclaimed Mr. Hanna, promptly. "It was two or three times as many as that."—Walter Wellman in Philadelphia Press.

CONTRACT IS VOID

Western Union Makes a Novel Defense.

Case Involving a Large Shipment of Candy to Paducah.

The Kentucky Sunday law and its relation to contracts was the basis of an interesting decision at Louisville Saturday by Judge Gordon in the case of the National Candy company against the Western Union Telegraph company for $135. The plaintiff claims to have sustained that loss on a sale of fourteen barrels of candy to Paducah customers because of an alleged error in the transmission of price quotations by the defendant.

The telegram was sent on Sunday by Frank Menne, Louisville agent of the plaintiff, and the Western Union in its answer after denying that any error was made raises the contention that the contract to deliver the message was void because it was sent on Sunday. The law provides that only business of necessity and charity can be transacted on Sunday, and the telegraph company holds that Mr. Menne's message did not come under either head. Judge Gordon supports this contention and decided that if the dispatch was sent only in the ordinary course of business and not for vital necessity, the defendants contract for delivery is void.

The word California was first used by a Spanish writer more than four hundred years ago to describe an imaginary land which, he claimed, was "Just this side of Paradise."

Little did he know how nearly right he was, for of all the spots the sun's rays shine upon, California most nearly approaches one's idea of an earthly Paradise.

RAIDING THE TREASURY.

A great deal of remonstrance is daily voiced in the press against the extravagance of the Kentucky legislature. Some of it is democratic, and a great deal of it is not. It is all futile.
Somebody has said that the people get as good a government as they deserve, which is probably true. They elect their own representatives, and if they don't elect good ones it is their own fault. Often they have to suffer with the minority, but this is a country where majority rule obtains, and when the people get tired of the robbery perpetrated at Frankfort, they will probably oust the robbers and shelve the democratic party which is responsible for it. The democrats of Kentucky have always been in politics for the money. Their greed and the fear of being barred from the public crib is what prompted them to enact the Goebel law, which left nothing to chance.

The present legislature has made appropriations amounting to a million and a half dollars. One million of this goes for a capitol building, $75,- 000 for the World's Fair, and much of the remainder will eventually find its way into the pockets of the men who run the party machinery. Much goes for increased salaries, state institutions, extensions and improvements, and such things, all of which are in charge of friends of the administration. Friends of the various officials will no doubt get the contracts for all buildings, extensions, etc., and if there is no grafting, it will not be because there is not a golden opportunity for it. It is estimated that before two years have passed, there will be a deficit in the state treasury of half a million dollars, if not more. On the two committees on appropriation in the general assembly there is one republican. The entire committee in the house is composed of democrats, and the lone republican who might have had a voice in the appropriations is on the senate committee. But it would have made little difference if the entire committee had been composed of republicans. The legislature is largely democratic, and would have done as it liked any how. The legislature was chosen by the people, or is supposed to have been, hence the people, after all, are responsible. When they get enough of these biennial raids on the treasury, they may listen to the republican arguments for a chance to manage the affairs of state.

THE COUNTY ROAD QUESTION.

The plan of the county road supervisor to spend money collected as a road tax for extending the gravel roads, if it meets with the approval of the farmers, will doubtless be adopted by fiscal court. If the residents of the county like the plan, they should talk it up to the members of fiscal court from their district. It will no doubt strike the average person that the plan is a good one, and one that will save a great deal of money and enable the county to derive a great deal of benefit from the saving.
While the roads of the county, dirt and gravel alike, should always be kept in as good a condition as possible, it is obvious that dirt roads are failures, and year after year they will be very dusty in dry weather and very muddy in wet weather, no matter how much money is expended to keep them in proper shape. The reason is that dirt as a material for highways is worthless. As long as there is nothing but dirt on a road, it will be unsatisfactory. It is consequently plain that the best and most economical plan in the long run is to make the roads of good material. In this part of the country gravel is about the best thing procurable, and if the money now spent annually for shoveling the mud off the dirt roads, and cutting them down and smoothing them off—all of which costs several thousands of dollars a year and does little or no good—were spent in making gravel roads, the county would soon have a much better class of roads, and they would eventually cost very little for repairs.
It is a matter of paramount interest to the farmer, because he pays part of the taxes and uses the roads more than any other class.

LABOR TROUBLES

Chicago Seems to Have a Cup
Full to Overflowing.

Many Additional Strikes Are Predicted.—Union Heavily Fined.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 29.—Judge Hol-don adjudged the Franklin union of pressfeeders guilty of contempt, assessed an additional fine of $1,000 against it, and ordered President Woerner to jail for three months and to pay a fine of $250. Secretary Shea was fined $100 and sent to jail for six months. Harry Brown, of the "visiting" committee, got 40 days in jail and Jerome Collins of the "educational" committee four months in jail.
Attorney Tenney for the Chicago typothetae told of the brutal slugging of men and girls, and charged the union with directing and paying for these crimes. It was also said the alleged dissolution of the union was merely a sham to avoid paying the previous fines imposed.

March promises to see the extension of industrial trouble, until the number of idle people is increased by the thousands. Workers are leaving the city and manufacturers are planning to seek new locations. At the end of this month numerous agreements between employers and wage earners will expire. The following is a list of strikes that may begin next week or the week after:

Wholesale grocery clerks, 1000;
painters and decorators, 3500; brass-workers, 6000; woodworkers in sash and door mills, 1500; van teamsters, 1000; cement finishers, 2500; employes of shops in Pullman and Burside, 9000. Total, 24,500.

Following is a partial list of the strikes and lockout in progress:

Three plants of American can company, 1700; 117 wagon and carriage shops, 100; chandelier makers, ten factories, 1100.

Rev. E. E. Bomar, of Richmond, Va., foreign missionary secretary of the Southern Baptist church, preached Sunday morning at the First Baptist church of this city. The congregation of this church agreed to support a missionary in a foreign field, for which they will contribute $600 annually. Three people were baptized at this church Sunday evening, by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Perryman.

Captain W. O. Clark was decidedly better today at his home on South Fourth street.

One Company in Which Paducahans
Are Interested Declares Dividend.

Those local capitalists who have invested in oil wells near Lima, Ohio, continue to receive good news. Today information reached the city that the No. 3 company shot a well Friday which has proven to be the largest yet brought, having a capacity of 600 barrels a day. This is the tenth well of the No. 3 company, and it intends to sink 21 in all.

The No. 2 company, in which Paducah people are also interested, has already declared a dividend of 2 per cent.

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Arnold Yates, the 3 year old son of W. H. Yates, died Saturday night of pneumonia, at the family residence, 1012 Jones street. The funeral took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. H. Robinson of the Second Baptist church. The burial was at Oak Grove.

ELECTRIC LIGHT NOTICE.

tinued.

PADUCAH CITY R.Y.

—Henry Wilkerson, of Henderson, has accepted a position in the Good man barber shop, in Mechanicsburg.
Mr. Goodman, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

—No one was arrested for throwing the brick through a window at Re-kopf's collar factory Saturday night.
It did not strike the watchman, who fired several shots in the direction from which the missile came. The police have no clue to the perpetrator.

—A judgment for sale was filed in the case of W. M. Johnson against trator, against Grant Slaughter and others.

Mr. Ed Hostetter, of Fourth and Tennessee streets, is up after a spell of la grippe.

Dr. D. J. Foster, who was injured
from a fall last week is better.

Mrs. W. H. Hudnell, wife of the well known contractor of North Third street, who has been ill for three weeks, is better.

The Meaning of "Carat."

The value of a diamond is calculated on its weight, which is estimated by what are called "carats," originally an Indian weight. Four grains go to the "carat," the value of which varies slightly in different countries, and formerly the rule was that the value of the stone increased with the square of the weight in carats. This, however, is rather out-of-date, and the value is now governed by the beauties of the particular stone, so that it is practically impossible, especially with "specimen stones," to give any fixed rule.

Breed Rare Pigeons.

The Heligons are great pigeon breeders, and one of the choicest birds of this kind is the true Antwerp carrier, which is comparatively rare.

Plenty of Room for All.

If the Mississippi valley were as densely populated as Massachusetts, it would have 350,000,000 inhabitants.

Vagaries of Our Language.

The late Dr. Tanner when in parliament once moved the house of commons to uproarious laughter by his uncertainty with regard to the word
"schedule." First he made the "ch" hard, in the American manner, and when that was received with a laugh he paused and floundered over it like a startled schoolboy. As he plunged from one pronunciation to another the house shouted with merriment. As a matter of fact, the best English dictionaries give a choice between "sed-ule" "skedule" and "shedule."

Mrs. Foster writes:

HARTFORD, Ky., Dec. 15, 1903.

NATIONAL TOILET CO., PARIS, TENN.

Gentlemen.—It affords me great pleasure to state, regarding your SATINOLA, that my face was spotted very badly, I had tried other remedies, and all seemed to bring out the blotches plainer. When your Miss Ray told me about SATINOLA I had but little faith in it, but used two boxes, just as directed, and now haven't a spot on my face, and have a splendid complexion. So many ask me what has given me such a good color. I cannot praise Satinola enough, and would not take anything for what it has done for me. Very truly,

RHEUMATISM

NOT A SKIN DISEASE.

It is natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when rheumatic pains are shooting through the joints and muscles and they are inflamed and sore, the sufferer is apt to turn to liniments and plasters for relief; and while such treatment may quiet the pain temporarily, no amount of rubbing or blistering can cure Rheumatism, because it is not a skin disease, but is in the blood and all through the system, and every time you are exposed to the same conditions that caused the first attack, you are going to have another, and Rheumatism will last just as long as the poison is in the blood, no matter what you apply externally. Too much acid in the blood is one cause of Rheumatism; stomach troubles, bad digestion, weak kidneys and torpid liver are other causes which bring on this painful disease, because the blood becomes tainted with the poisonous matter which these organs fail to carry out of the system. Certain secret diseases will produce Rheumatism, and of all forms this is the most stubborn and severe, for it seems to affect every bone and muscle in the body. The blood is the medium by which the poisons and acids are carried through the system, and it doesn't matter what kind of Rheumatism you have, it must be treated through the blood, or you can never get permanently rid of it. As a cure for rheumatic troubles S. S. S. has never been equalled. It doesn't inflame the stomach and ruin the digestion like Potash, Alkalies and other strong drugs, but tones up the general health, gently stimulates the sluggish organs, and at the same time antitoxins and filters out of the blood all poisonous acids and effete matter of every kind; and when S. S. S. has restored the blood to its natural condition, the painful, feverish joints and the sore and tender muscles are immediately relieved.

Our special book on Rheumatism will be mailed free to those desiring it. Our physicians will cheerfully answer all letters asking for special information or advice, for which no charge is made.

PIONEER PASTOR

Widow of a Former Baptist Minister Here Dies.

She Lived in Paducah With Her Husband During the War.

DEATH W. T. REEVES IN IDAHO

News of the death of Mrs. Maria J. Walker, widow of Rev. W. B. Walker, one of the early pastors of the Baptist church here, reached the city yesterday. Mrs. Walker died at her home in Hopkinsville Sunday from old age, after a brief illness.

Very few people will remember Rev. Walker, as he was pastor of the Baptist church before the First Baptist church at Fifth and Jefferson streets was built. It was being erected at the time of the war, and was used as a hospital during a portion of the war. Mrs. Mary Colley, mother of Mrs. C. M. Leake, was a member of his church. Saturday's Hopkinsville News says of Mrs. Walker:

"She was born in Henry county, Virginia, on December 15, 1821, her maiden name being Maria J. Payne. She was married to the Rev. W. B. Walker in Pontotoc, Miss., October 14, 1841. She came to Kentucky with her husband and resided first at Paducah where Dr. Walker had charge of a church. Later he went to Louisville where he was engaged in the publishing business and came to Christian county in 1866 to assume the pastorate of the Locust Grove and South Union Baptist churches, at that time among the largest and most influential churches in this region. Dr. Walker was pastor of the Locust Grove Baptist church 26 years. He died 12 years ago. Mrs. Walker greatly aided her husband in his work. Three daughters and one son survive her. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon. The remains were laid to rest in Hopewell cemetery."

Mr. William T. Reeves, aged 47, a brother of President Robert Reeves, of the First National bank here, died Saturday evening at his home in Pocatello, Idaho, from Bright's disease, after a six month's illness. The deceased was born in Ballard county and there for some years practiced law. He married Miss Jennie Thomas, of Ballard county, who with six children survives him. He had resided in Idaho for many years and was one of the most prominent and successful lawyers there. He was at one time judge of the district court there. He leaves three sisters and two brothers: Messrs. Robert Reeves, of Paducah, and Judge Bud Reeves, of Ballard county. Mrs. Dr. Hinkle, of Hinkleville, and Mesdames W. J. Puckett and H. J. Miller, of Denver, Col. The remains will be buried in Pocatello.

COUNTY ROADS

A New Plan for Working Them Will be Suggested.

Supervisor Will Recommend that Money All Be Spent for Gravel.

NO WORK UNTIL APRIL.

County Road Supervisor E. B. Johnson will at the April meeting of fiscal court make a recommendation regarding the working of the county roads which he believes, if followed out, will be very beneficial to the county. He will suggest that the county spend its road funds this year exclusively in extending the gravel roads.

For many years the county has spent large sums of money in working the dirt roads. From $10,000 to $40,000 has been thus annually expended, and it has been clearly demonstrated that it is a waste of money. Supervisor Johnson has come to the conclusion that the best thing for the county, and for the residents of the county, is to spend the road funds in graveling the roads.

Last year several miles of dirt roads were converted into gravel turnpikes, and if all the money is thus spent every year it will be only a matter of time until all the roads in the county are gravelled. Gravel roads are not only substantial, requiring little repair but are also much better, and reduce to a minimum, when compared with the dirt road, both the dust and mud.

The best plan would be for the county to issue bonds and gravel the roads, but this seems to be impossible, as the fiscal court does not appear to approve of the plan. The dirt roads when worked during the summer, are in a few weeks or months as bad as before, and the money thus spent has been wasted. Last year County Judge Lightfoot and Supervisor Johnson adopted a plan which would have proven very beneficial, had certain persons not given it a black eye by going about the county propagating the farmers' argument. The plan was for the residents along a road to pay a part of the cost of graveling the roads, and the county the remainder.

It is not known how Supervisor Johnson's new plan will take, but if tried it will probably enable the county to save many thousands of dollars now wasted, and will give better roads.

Supervisor Johnson says that no work will be done on the county roads until after the meeting of fiscal court in April.

PAT'S INTRODUCTION TO GOLF.

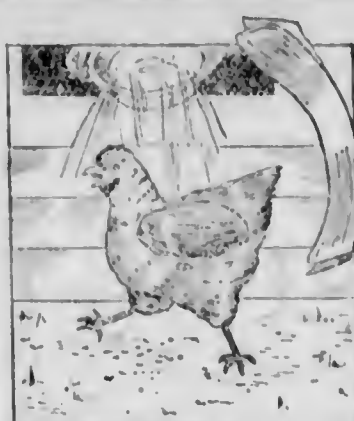

Pat had been helping the greens keeper construct several trees at the new golf links, and during the noon hour had been given a few lessons in driving, says the New York Times. A day or two later he was telling his friend Casey about it.

"Faith, Casey," he said, "this game they call golf is a funny game. You have a little white ball and a long stick with a knob on the end and you put the white ball on a little hole in the ground. Then the game is to haul off and smack the ball so far you kin never find it again."

"An' did you hit the ball when you tried?" asked Casey.

"Did I?" said Pat. "That's the funny thing about golf, sure, the first time I hit it, I never touched it!"

The bodies of Arthur W. Pressel and wife, of Huntington, Ind., were found in a Chicago hotel. The man had been shot and the woman had taken on poison. Apparently they had committed suicide by agreement.

THE STROLLERS

She turned, her eyes were moist; her hand trembled a little against her dress, but she held her head proudly, as she had always done, and it was the respect of this weakness set against strength that appealed swiftly to him, softening his heart so that he longed to spring to her side.

"Yes, much," she replied.

Was her voice tremulous, or was it but the thrill of his own heart which made it seem so?

"You have been here long?" she asked, still holding back what was on her mind or blithely endeavoring to upbraid the subject.

"Only since yesterday."

"And you remain some time?"

"I am leaving today—for France."

At that a touch of color left her face, or was it that a darkening shadow fell upon the house and garden, momentarily chastening the outlook?

"For France?" she repeated.

Her lips quivered. Something seemed to still the beating of his heart.

"Constance—what is it?" he half-whispered.

She stepped forward suddenly, her hands outstretched.

"I wronged you!" she cried. "I wronged you! I thought the disgrace was yours! Oh, do not speak!" she added passionately. "I have suffered for it and now, would you mind—please—leaving me?"

"You thought the disgrace was mine?" he repeated slowly. "Not my—"

He broke off abruptly. "And you suffered for it?" he said wonderingly. "Then you—"

He arose quickly and approached her, a new expression transfiguring his bronzed and worn young face.

Swiftly he sought her glance. Her eyes gave him no answer. There suddenly she abandoned herself to his arms, and he felt her bosom rise and fall with conflicting emotions. Closely he held her in the surprise and surging pleasure of the moment; then, bending, he kissed her lips. A wave of color flooded her face, though her eyes still sought his. But even as he regarded her the clear, open look gradually changed, replaced by one of half-perplexity, half-reproach.

"That night you went away—why did you not defend yourself?" she asked finally.

"I never imagined my mistake. Besides, what had I to offer? Your future was bright, your name on every one's lips."

"Did you think you were responsible for your brother's sin?"

His dark features clouded.

"I suppose I had become accustomed to cold looks; in Africa, by some of my comrades who had no tincture of the story. No matter what I did, I was his brother, and the bitterest part was that I loved him, loved him from my boyhood. He was the handsomest, most joyous fellow. Even when he died in my arms in Mexico my heart could not absolutely turn from him."

She opened her lips as if to speak, but the shadow on his face kept her silent.

"I was weak enough to keep the story from you in the first place, a foolish reluctance, for these matters follow a man to the ends of the world."

"Oh," she said, "to think it was I who made you feel this?"

He took her hand. His grasp hurt her fingers, yet she did not shrink.

"You showed me a new world," he answered quickly. "Not the world I expected to find, where life would hold little of joy or zest, but a magical world, a beautiful world, yours!"

She half hung her head. "But then—then—"

"It became a memory, bitter sweet, yet more sweet than bitter!"

"And now?"

He did not answer immediately.

The figure of the count, as he had seen him the night before, but abruptly entered his mind. Did she understand? She smiled.

"And now?"

At her question he dismissed all thought of jealousy. Looking into her clear, half laughing eyes, he read of no entangling alliances. Without words from her he understood.

"Shall we go into the garden?" she said, and, opening the window, they stepped out upon the veranda.

In the sky a single large cloud stretched itself in a dreamy torpor, too sluggish apparently to move, while a brood of little clouds nestled and slept around it. From the window the count's ally watched them among the plants and vines, pausing now and then, their interest more in themselves than in the liveliest lines or forms that nature offered. He stood still, regarding his shadow on the path seriously.

"Nearly noon by the soldier's dial," he said.

She pushed back the hair the wind had blown about her brow.

SECRET ORDERS

Local Woodmen Have a Uniform Rank Drilling Regularly.

Will Have Big Initiation Soon—Elks Committee Stays at Home.

NEWS OF SEVERAL LODGES

A company of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been organized here by State Manager J. H. Brewer. Mr. E. W. Johnson is captain and being a good military man he at once began drilling his men for the demonstration at the World's fair September 14, W. O. W. day. The members of the Uniform rank at present are: E. W. Johnson, captain; A. Jonsick, E. Townsend, Joe Halsey, J. W. Halsey, M. Steinfield, J. F. Roark, J. A. Coloway, W. M. McKernan, G. R. Halsey, J. T. Willis, F. Carrico, J. B. Flasch, George Schroeder, Oscar Greif, J. E. Williamson, B. Burcholder, J. R. Vance, W. M. Threadgill, Hugh Stupp, J. B. Flasch, George Schroeder, J. E. Williamson, Sr., B. Burcholder, J. R. Vance.

A Woodman of the World lodge has been organized at Metropolis by Paducah organizers, Julius Looser and Mini Glaffelter and Wednesday, March 9, a big delegation of local Woodmen will go to Metropolis to install the lodge. There will be about 30 members of the Metropolis lodge.

Ollie Camp, Woodman of the World, will on Thursday night, March 4, at its hall on the South Side, install a large class of candidates. It is expected that it will be one of the largest classes ever initiated at one time.

In a few days Deputy Organizer J. W. Kelsey, of the city, will go to Benton, Ky., to arrange for the installation of a large class there of Woodmen. The exact date has not been selected, but it will probably be within the next two days.

The committee of the Paducah Carnival association, composed of Messrs. L. A. Lagomarsino, G. R. Davis and Charles Weille, after getting ready to go to Chattanooga to investigate the advisability of booking carnival attractions independent of any carnival company, decided yesterday not to go. The reason is that a telegram was received from Chattanooga yesterday which made the trip of the committee unnecessary. The local association will decide on which plan to adopt later on.

The annual reunion of Old Fellows from Kentucky, Tennessee and Illinois will be held this year at Carbondale, Ill., on April 26, and preparations are now being made for it. Paducah, as usual, will send a delegation. The reunion has been held in Paducah several times, and the coming one will be the nineteenth.

The reorganization of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, will take place this evening as stated several days ago. As soon as it is accomplished, drilling will begin and a crack team for the bi-annual contest is promised by the local members.

The local order of Red Men will divide the lodge next Friday night at the regular meeting and begin the membership contest.

Today Secretary Wiltach received from several firms notice that they would have representatives here on March 3 to bid on furnishing the lodge with paraphernalia. The lodge bought a new outfit some time ago, but it proved to not be up to contract and was rejected. About $1,000 is to be spent for paraphernalia.

FEAST OF PURIM

Jewish Festival Will Begin This Evening.

Tonight at sundown the Jewish festival of Purim will be ushered in and will be celebrated throughout tomorrow. It commemorates the preservation of the Jewish faith by Esther from the destruction of the Syrians.

There will be no services at Temple Israel this evening or tomorrow, but the feast will be commemorated next Friday evening at the time of the regular weekly service. Special music and a special address will be given. The feast will be still further celebrated with a children's fancy dress ball within the next few days, probably next Monday evening.

The Jews of America have sustained great loss in the recent death at New York city of Leo N. Levi, the author, orator, jurist and philanthropist. He was president of the benevolent Jewish order of B'nai B'rith, which numbers about 225,000 in this country and several thousands in Europe.

Leo N. Levi was born in Texas and graduated from the university of Virginia, but not being of an age or admittance to the bar in Texas, a special statute was enacted by the legislature to admit him to the practice of law, in which he became prominent both in Texas and in New York city. His work in behalf of the Jewish immigrants from Russia and Rumania was very important. It was mainly through his efforts that our government interfered, as far as it could, in behalf of the persecuted Jews, evoking the "Rumanian" note addressed by Secretary Hay to the European powers and the celebrated Kishineff petition to the czar of Russia.

Leo N. Levi might be looked upon as the highest type of the American Jew and considered one of the greatest men of his race since the days of Judah P. Benjamin of confederate fame. He combined rare qualities of mind and heart and was a leader of men. Memorial services were held in every city of this country and here at Temple Israel.

Hon. Simon W. Wolf has been elected as successor to Mr. Levi as president of the order of B'nai B'rith. Mr. Wolf served in the federal army and was subsequently recorder of Washington, D. C., under President Grant; also, in the diplomatic service. He is now practicing law in Washington and is known as an author and orator.

GIVEN A CHARM

Chief Clerk Meyers Handsomely Remembered.

His Successor Not Yet Appointed By General Agent Donovan.

Mr. A. R. Meyers, chief clerk to Mr. John Donovan, local agent for the I. C., who will tomorrow quit the railroad service after a number of years employment, was yesterday morning presented with a watch charm locket by the employees of the freight offices as a token of their esteem and respect for the popular chief clerk.

Mr. Thomas Robison made the presentation speech in which he thanked Mr. Meyers for the many favors shown the clerical force as a whole and for individual favors and good will he has at all times exhibited towards the clerks.

Mr. Meers replied in a short speech thanking the clerks for the memento and expressed regret that he was to leave the service in which he has been for so many years.

Mr. Meyers will leave the railroad tomorrow to accept a position in the general offices of the Friedman-Keller whiskey house here. He will be in charge of the bookkeeping department and will enter into his new duties immediately. A successor has not yet been appointed by General Agent Donovan.

Plague Holds Fast. The bubonic plague, which has now been in India more than six years, shows no sign of abating.

Theatrical Notes.

Da Barry will be given its first representation in Paducah Tuesday evening, March 1, at The Kentucky. Edith Julian, who impersonates the titular role, is regarded as one of the most charming of the present day comedienne. Frederick Julian as the crafty Richelieu, E. M. Crane as the Duke de Choiseul; Frederick Noonan as the young court doctor and other members of the strong supporting company add to the strength of the ensemble work. The Columbus Stock Co. at the Kentucky all this week. Prices 10, 20 and 30c. Ladies free tonight when accompanied by a paid 10c ticket, if purchased before 5 p. m. Seats now on sale.

Mr. Frederick Julian, a member of the Columbus Stock company, which is at the Kentucky this week, is a guest at Hotel Lagomarsino and it is his first visit to Paducah in 27 years. Mr. Julian has with him his wife and boy, and while he has travelled all over the country in the intervening years, he well remembers Paducah. For the past three years, until the Iroquois fire drove so many of the profession from Chicago, he played in Chicago exclusively.

He was here when the only theater was the old St. Clair hall, on South Second street. He was with Mary Anderson, later the most noted actress America has ever produced, but then obscure and struggling, like the others in her company. They did all their traveling by river, and made Cairo, Paducah, Henderson, Clarksville, and other cities.

Mr. Julian says that there were not even gas lights here then, people going about carrying lanterns, and that he and three companions boarded at a private residence, and had to wade in mud over their shoe tops in the dark to get back to their boarding house after the show.

Mary Anderson was in those days playing "Romeo and Juliet," "The Lady of Lyons" and "Eveline." Her family, including mother, stepfather and others, travelled with her.

Hon. Charles Reed, of the Palmer house, says he well remembers the visit of "Our Mary." She came up from Cairo, and owing to the fact that a large crowd of people from surrounding cities were here, the Richmond hotel, of which Mr. Reed was then proprietor, was full, and he had to place the actress, her stepfather, whom Mr. Reed knew well, and who was surgeon in Mr. Reed's regiment during the war, her mother, and in fact the entire family in room 12. He met Miss Anderson, as she then was, and ate at the same table with the family during her stay here.

The actress was somewhat indisposed, according to Mr. Reed and had an eruption of some sort on her face, which caused her a great deal of annoyance.

The date of the annual concert of Prof. Wm. Deal's band is April 3rd. He will prepare a program never excelled in Paducah by any local organization, and the members of his band are already rehearsing for it. The concert will be at the Kentucky theater.

Mr. True S. James and company, playing "The Old Melody," left for Evansville yesterday. Mr. James and his company have just started out, all belonging to companies closing recently, and they had more experience than capital when they came to Paducah, which was the second stand they made. They played to poor business until Saturday, when they had a good matinee, and a good Saturday night house, which enabled them to go to the next place. It is thought the company will do well at Evansville, which is Mrs. James' former home.

New York dispatches tell of the hit made there by Miss Alma Powell, a Princeton, Ky., girl who is now playing in "If Women Were Men." She plays the part of a Southern beauty, and is said to do it well. Many people in Paducah know her personally.

CHIEF WOOD

IS ABLE TO BE OUT AGAIN TODAY.

Fire Chief Woods is out again, his many friends will be pleased to learn. He had been laid up in bed since the accident several days ago in which he was thrown out of his buggy, while responding to an alarm. His right ankle was turned and he was unable to walk. Yesterday morning he was out in his buggy and this morning was able to be up again.

HAD SOUVENIR

OF THE BATTLE FOUGHT AT SHILOH YEARS AGO.

Former City Marshal James Crow has a small piece of white oak which he years ago cut out of a tree up Tennessee river on Shiloh battleground. Mr. Crow was then running on a steamboat and one day while plotting a party of sight seers over the ground he cut about 150 pieces of wood from the tree as souvenirs, one of which he kept. The tree is the one under which General Albert Sydney Johnston died during the battle. He went to the tree and sat down after being wounded, and although the tree was blown down some time afterwards, it was never permitted to be moved or destroyed.

THE SICK.

Charles and Clarence Geckel have recovered from an attack of measles. City Jailor T. J. Everts' condition is about the same today, but he is slowly improving.

Mr. Harry Judd, the I. C. pattern-maker, is still ill and unable to be on duty.

POLICE COURT

SALOON DIFFICULTY HEARD—FEW CASES ON THE DOCKET TODAY

Judge Sanders had an unusually light Monday morning docket this morning. A difficulty at the Blue Ribbon saloon on South Third was in the list. James Sellars, proprietor, was charged with flourishing a pistol and presenting it at Ed Radelph and a man named Drake, with striking Radelph. The facts seemed to be that Radelph was drinking Saturday night and became so boisterous while engaged in a game of cards that he had to be called down. He called Drake a name during a dispute and was struck. When an effort was made to put him out he seized Tom Hewell, a bartender, about the neck and Mr. Sellars went out with a pistol to stop the trouble. Sellars was acquitted and Drake was fined $1 and costs.

The gaming case against the Hawkins, John Thomas and Alie Doyle, colored, was dismissed.

Joe Thomas, Tom Ross, Allen Walters, were fined $1 and costs for being drunk, and Sterling Fitzgerald was fined $1 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. The charges against Thomas and Fitzgerald were old ones.

ONE CASE OF SMALLPOX

A case of smallpox in a negro family at 11th and Washington streets, has been reported to Health Officer Graver. The house has been quarantined.

BUILDING PERMITS

A boom in building permits will start in Paducah as soon as there is settled weather. During February 27 building permits have been issued, but none for any unusually large structures. City Engineer Washington expects a great increase during March.
